B.S. Degree in International Studies with a concentration in Global Studies

This major gives students a broad view of the world with an emphasis on developing regions. The core ensures that students have broad exposure to major world religions, international politics and government, recent global history and relationships between geography, culture, arts and society. This major is a good point of departure for pursuing an international-related degree and/or many careers, including international business, diplomacy and fields related to human development.
